

PORTFOLIO

Spring

2011

Finding Our Ways: Seeking Connection, Right Action & Emancipation

MASTER of FINE ARTS in INTERDISCIPLINARY ARTS

Dina Petrillo-Herz

CONTENTS

I On Portfolio Process: Praxis and the Nature of Thoughtful Experience

Respond in Kind

Introduction: The Uses of Reflection

An Orientation to Multiple Voices and Forms and Persistent Ambivalence

II Praxis: Framing the MFA IA Experience

On Practice

What Is Art? Why Is Art?

Bringing Images and Sculpture Together in Printmaking

A Life of the Mind and Living Theory

Bringing Garden and Studio Practices Together

Artistic Influences and Ongoing Dialogs with Form and Content

Memoir: Interdisciplinary Collaboration, Implications for Pedagogy, and the Importance of Telling Life Stories

Studio Laboratory and Creative Urge

III Art & Ecology

Artworks as Ecosystems

Steps to an Ecology of Mind

Solastalgia: Homesick for the Wilderness

An Argument for Arts and Ecology in Partnership

Garden, Art, Ecology and Food: A Teen Centered Program

The Necessity for Changing Notions of Beauty

The Wild and the "Feral"

Plants are Like Words

Making the Garden Plates

Decidere: An Installation

IV Studio Laboratory: Materiality & Poetic Voice

Unpacking a Processes Across Materials

Making the Plant Plates

Uses of Depression: Plant & Human Forms Conjoined

Sculpting Images: Collagraphs

Wrapping Light: Forms & Window Prints

Origins in Painting Collage & Mixed Media

Origins in Clay and Metals

Poetic Voice with Rick

V Garden: Metaphor & the Living Lab

Fall Harvest & Processing

Musing on the Everyday & Rural Life

VI Pedagogy & Memoir

Praxis: Walkin' the Talk

Creatura Botanica

Art Crawl & Raku Rodeo

Mediating Experience: Bridging Studio & Teaching Practices

Constructing and Integrating Community

Memoir: A Collaboration among Words, Images and Materials

Memoir Practicum Excerpts

Practicum Report

Memoir: Vices & Virtues & Wolf's Ruca

Sculpture Across 3 Media: UMaine

Art of the Handmade Print

All Hands On Exhibit: A Collaboration

VII Human Tracks: Goddard & Peer Seminar

Burning Questions & Meandering

Tracks in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, NYC

What's in a Name?

A Barnyard Collaboration among Goats & Humans

Human Tracks in the Urban Landscape

Course Materials & Rationale

VIII Bibliography: References & Inspiration