

Biography + CV

John Brodie was born in Portland, OR and has been painting for over 20 years, with additional emphasis on sculpture, book art, collage, printmaking and works on paper. He was included in Disjecta's PDX2010: A Biennial of Contemporary Art. In January 2007 he founded TodayArt, whose first project was the formation of the 9,000-square foot TodayArt Studios in Southeast Portland. From 1996 to 2006 he was a member of the notorious 333 Studios, a loose collective and fine arts studio. In June 2009, he produced "Store for a Month," an art exhibit and temporary "store" in Portland (based on Claes Oldenburg's famous Store of 1961) that featured over 70 Northwest artists. For 20 years he worked in the music business, first managing the legendary club La Luna, then managing the globe-trotting band Pink Martini and their label, Heinz Records. He owned Le Happy, a frenchy restaurant in Portland, from 2000 to 2015. In May 2010 he opened Monograph Bookwerks, a fine art bookstore, with Blair Saxon-Hill.
