'NATIONAL AFFILIATE MEMBERS EXHIBITION': This show of very diverse works is surprisingly strong, maybe because everyone in it is exploring issues of, yes, gender. It ranges from Karen Baldner's drawings of crucified males on ragged handmade paper to Dorothy Vagnier's rusty fetish objects festooned with rhinestones, eyelashes, and fur, and includes Margaret Wagner's Construction of Self (via two photomurals and 3000 snapshots) and Kathleen Anderson's Breast Cancer Quilt, with flesh-color panels, a black-feather breast border, and a dust ruffle of IV tubing. Through August 14, Soho20, 469 Broome Street, 226-4167. (Levin)
