Silver Spring, MD, USA

Lynn Alleva Lilley is an American photographer born in Washington, DC and currently living in Silver Spring, MD. At the core of her work is a strong connection to nature and place. Her creative process is inspired by poetry, music, painting and science and she has a particular interest in the photobook as a uniquely intimate way of presenting her photographs. Her first photobook, Tender Mint, includes photographs made in Jordan over a three year period which reveal feelings of displacement, loss, adaptation and other-worldly beauty in the context of Jordan. The photographs in her recent photobook, Deep Time, present the mysterious life and world of the ancient Atlantic horseshoe crab, Limulus polyphemus. Ms. Alleva Lilley lived with her family in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan during 2016-2018 where she continued to photograph. Upon returning home to Silver Spring, Maryland, she continues to create a body of work entitled “il nido (the nest)” in the woods of Sligo Creek near her home. Ms. Alleva Lilley began as a self-taught photographer more than 25 years ago and later studied with photographer Terri Weifenbach who became an important mentor.
