Mo Kelman is a sculptor, fiber artist and professor emeritus of art at the Community College of Rhode Island.

A recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship, Kelman has exhibited at the Cleveland Museum of Art's May Show; Korea's Cheongju International Craft Biennale; the International Shibori Symposia in Nagoya, Japan and Hong Kong; Brown University's Bell Gallery and the Worcester Center for Crafts, among others. She is a recipient of a 2012 Artist's Fellowship from the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts.

Kelman's sculptures take cues from the architectural world, building tensile structures with bamboo, wire and shibori-dyed and shaped silk.

Kelman has taught at the Haystack Mountain School of Crafts, the Massachusetts College of Art and the Rhode Island School of Design.
