MONICA MALEWSKA'S BACON PAINTINGS

by Contributor on MAY 18, 2013 in ART

In a truly bizarre and striking fashion, bacon is the focus of the newest series by Monica Malewska, and for many things she insists, it can be used. Inspired by Rorschach's ink blot tests, bacon is paired both with ornamental flowers and butterflies, and a haunting human skull that wears a never ending smile. Bacon is turned into fabric; it becomes the cloth that covers the bare parts of a beautiful model, a bra (sans wearer), and the stripes on the American flag.
