

September 22, 1997

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of Mr. Philip Sugden whose exceptional work I have recently discovered due to his involvement with World Artists for Tibet.

Our goal is to engage as many people and cultural organizations around the world as we possibly can. Although we have received excellent proposals for participation with our project, Mr. Sugden's work is particularly exceptional. His insight and understanding of the Tibetan culture is evident in his unique creative style. His love for the people is reflected in every exquisite drawing. One can truly experience the depth of his connection to this magnificent old culture. We could not be more delighted at having him participate in our event in July and August, 1998 (Denise Bibro Gallery, New York City). I know that any museum or gallery would greatly benefit from having his work exhibited in their space.

Some of the artists that have agreed to join us include, Francesco Clemente, Leon Golub, Robert Longo, Pert Nagy, Yoko Ono, Sean Lennon, Anne Lennox, Rosie O'Donnell, Richard Gere, and Arto Lindsay.

Sincerely,

Ronit Herzfeld
North American Coordinator