

BIOGRAPHY

Randy Toy is an artist and printmaker living and working in Richmond, Virginia. He received an MFA and BFA from Virginia Commonwealth University with additional education from the Loughborough College of Art & Design in the United Kingdom. He is the recipient of a Professional Fellowship in Printmaking from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. His work has been exhibited at A_Ramona_Studio New York, Corcoran Museum Washington, DC, Page Bond Gallery Richmond, Virginia and internationally at the Museum of Skopje Skopje, Republic of Macedonia, Daega Cultural Arts Center Daegu, South Korea and L'Atelier Circulaire Montreal, Quebec Canada. He has numerous works included in the corporate collections of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Capital One, Royall and Company as well as significant works in notable private collections.