

Andrew D. Moeller

Artist Statement

I currently use painting as a meditative process to generate an architectural grid of shallow-spaced facades that lack specific authorship and location, but together create a contemplative experience within a space that is both diagrammatic and pictorial.