Just Sing! with Children's Chorus of Maryland at the 46th Annual Spring Concert

Towson, MD - April 20th, 2022. With music ranging from the silly to the serene, spanning centuries and continents, "Just Sing!" is a choral concert that enthusiastically celebrates and illustrates the joys of spring through song.

The three choirs that compose Children's Chorus of Maryland & School of Music include children ranging in age from 6 to 18. Susan Bialek, Artistic Director, will conduct the 46th annual spring concert, and Patricia McKewen Amato will accompany on piano. The concert includes musical works by Josquin es Prez, Ralph Vaughn Williams, James Q. Mulholland, Jeff Enns, Eleanor Daley, Ola Gjello, David Brunner, and Lisa Young.

Children's Chorus of Maryland is one of the oldest programs for choral music education and performance in the United States. The Conservatory Program features highly qualified teachers, small classes, and in-depth vocal enrichment to provide children with a complete musical education and choral experience. Lyric and Concert Choir students have had the opportunity to participate in televised broadcasts, tour internationally and perform at well-known regional and national venues including Carnegie Hall, Joseph Meyerhoff Symphony Hall, and the White House.

Proof of vaccination for ages 12+ and masks are required for all audience members. General Admission tickets are $20. Due to live recording of the concert, no children under 5 will be admitted. Please visit www.ccmsings.org to learn more and purchase tickets. For special seating requests, please email ccm@ccmsings.org or call 410-494-1480. Maryland State Boychoir Center for the Arts is located at 3400 Norman Avenue in Baltimore, MD.

Celebrating its 46th year, Children's Chorus of Maryland & School of Music (CCM) provides comprehensive music education and choral performance programs for children in the Baltimore-Washington region. Committed to choral excellence using play-based learning, CCM has nurtured voices, minds & hearts since 1976. Under the direction of Artistic Director Susan Bialek, the Music Conservatory features highly qualified teachers, small classes, and in-depth vocal enrichment to provide children with a complete musical education and choral experience. Children as young as 5 ½ are encouraged to audition for one of the Conservatory's three choirs. CCM welcomes children attend public, private and parochial schools as well as those who are homeschooled. Merit and need-based scholarships are available. In addition to its Conservatory program, CCM offers the Crickets Music & Play Program for 4 to 6 year olds, a fun music and movement class on Saturday mornings at our school in Towson. CCM helps children discover their own unique voice. For more information on all of CCM's exceptional music programs, visit www.ccmsings.org.
