"We Are All Made of Stars" by Kristin Schattenfield-Rein

"Every element on Earth was formed at the heart of a dying star. We are all made of stars, isn't that incredible?" In her latest exhibition, "We Are All Made of Stars," Kristin Schattenfield-Rein experiments with layer upon layer of new materials—like graphite flake and silver and gold dust—to create complex, celestial-inspired pieces. Her work will be on display at Bluestone Fine Art Gallery from this Friday evening through October 27th. Friday, September 5th, 6 p.m.-9 p.m., Bluestone Fine Art Gallery, 142 N. 2nd Street.
