Though firmly rooted in her home state, Lindsey Fyfe spent formative years living in Southern California and the United Kingdom, traveling coast to coast and country to country. Rugged topography and wild spaces generate the ideas for her abstract oil paintings. Her studio is located in the Lower Connecticut River Valley.

Fyfe earned a Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, NY, and a Master of Arts in Painting from the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. She is a past Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar and a recipient of the Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation Artist Trust Award (2019). In May 2020 she was awarded the Artists Respond Grant from the Connecticut Office of the Arts. Fyfe also works professionally as an art educator in museums, non-profit institutions, and higher education, and this past Fall was named the Connecticut Art Education Association's 2022 Museum Educator of the Year. She is an active member of the Connecticut River Valley Artists, a regional guild of practicing artists.
