

LATE AUGUST SAW RESPITE FROM HAMPTONS BENEFIT PARTIES — YOUNG WOMEN WITH CHAMPAGNE glasses teetering across soggy lawns in unsuitable shoes, transportation in golf carts down long driveways, and gift bags laden with useless stuff. After that, with school ahead and the knell of summer ringing, people were out and about doing ordinary fun things, such as, clockwise from upper left, Mark and Marie Stearns on the beach with their pugs, Isabelle and Chloe; Milt and Cheryl Kaplan on a bicycle built for two; Simon Parkes doing some plein-air landscape painting; Edouard Cohen exercising a whole passel of dogs at Wiborg's Beach; Nathan, Elliot, Nora, and Daniel Tahbaz refueling on doughnuts on Newtown Lane, and Davis Bebon preparing to throw a strikeout splitter in his backyard.

Durell Godfrey Photos

