About SENSE:

Conscious of the vast interpretations and many meanings behind the word SENSE in the public context of 14th Street in Manhattan, Art in Odd Places 2017 presents installations, performative actions, audios, choreographies, workshops, oracles, classes, salons, time-based online/digital and multimedia projects, as well as proposals in any uncategorized formats, all of which focus on intuiting the unseen at an intimate or collective level. Emphasis is given to honest processes pointing to any of the hidden currents that flow through, below, or above the New York City thoroughfare in question; currents of which most busy passersby may remain unaware. Similarly, SENSE welcomes ideas that aim to awaken dormant perceptions within individual pedestrians, and arouse one-on-one or group synergies that promote sighting, feeling and self-healing.

Art in Odd Places (AiOP) presents visual and performance art in unexpected public spaces. AiOP produces an annual festival along 14th Street in Manhattan, NYC from Avenue C to the Hudson River each October since 2005. Art in Odd Places aims to stretch the boundaries of communication in the public realm by presenting artworks in all disciplines outside the confines of traditional public space regulations. AiOP reminds us that public spaces function as the epicenter for diverse social interactions and the unfettered exchange of ideas.

Schedule subject to change. Please refer to the AiOP 2017: SENSE festival website for the most up to date information about artist project schedules and locations. www.artinoddplaces.org

Keynote Speaker

Billy X. Curmano is known for extended performances like a 3-day live burial, 2,367.4-mile Mississippi swim, and 40-day desert fast all with serious environmental and social justice underpinnings tempered by irony and satire. An amused journalist dubbed him, "The Court Jester of Southeastern Minnesota."

Thinkers-in-Residence

Thinkers-in-Residence spend time on 14th Street over the Festival weekend reflecting on artists, pedestrians, publics, and participation. Their responses take the form of writing, walking, image-making, or on-the-spot conversations with the public.
