Dear Dana:

Just to tell you how much I liked your paintings! I still see them. They have a tremendous presence, as paintings -- their color, their structure, and the PAINT. THE PAINT! There is energy in the paint, when it's used well, and you use it well! The two paintings, which you said are from three years ago, stand there with such unique presence, inimitable presence, as some objects of nature, such as huge rocks, or calanques, or mountains. What I saw in your studio, the few pieces of the last few years of work, I find it about the best painting done today. No intellectual, formalistic, "art" baloney. Straight, good, terrific, inspiring painting. What my little visit to your studio did, it restored my faith in art. Yes, there is still art today and there will be always art and there will always be artists -- when all "art" fashions will pass away and all "art" journals will be forgotten and even most of the museums of art will be forgotten. So I thought I should tell you this, and I mean it from the bottom of my heart.

Keep going, and thanks,

...A love for life
Jonas
