Biography:

David is an American artist working with generative and algorithmic art techniques to create his Geo-Surrealistic landscapes. He works with ethereal forms to create his dream-like, metaphysical worlds which meditate on the profound tapestry of personal growth, self-awareness, and mental clarity. Abstracted elements of sacred geometry, labyrinths, and mandalas appear in most of David's work, guided by his interest in using them as metaphoric constructs to interpret and understand his subconscious.

About Videre Studio:

Inspired by 'To See' in Latin, Videre Studio encourages collectors to See, to Describe, to Think, and ultimately to Connect with Art. Any meaningful and lasting experience with a piece of art begins with truly Seeing it. Videre Studio is based in New York City and Los Angeles.
