

The Daily Mail

SERVING THE GREENE COUNTY
AREA SINCE 1792

FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 2006, CATSKILL, N.Y.

VOL. 215, No. 216

50

CATSKILL

Even cowgirls get an exhibit

Art insider curates
Brik Gallery show

By Debora Gilbert

Hudson-Catskill Newspapers

Susan Mastrangelo's affecting figurative works are shown off to advantage in a small separate space at the rear of the gallery. The faces she portrays both on paper and in a sculptural installation are expressive of a whole vocabulary of feeling. Her two wood block prints betray an impressive graphic ability and a command of the wood block medium, her wall installation with its many minute animated sculpted heads speaks of the vulnerability of the individual in modern society.