

I HEAR A SEED GROWING

EDWINA GATELEY

The powerful, true story of two women: one who ministered to women in prostitution in Chicago and the friend who struggled to rise from its streets.

I HEAR A SEED GROWING

EDWINA GATELEY

20th Anniversary Edition

With a New Introduction by Joan Chittister

"A real treasure; powerful and gripping, hard to put down. On several levels, Gateley combines intellect and spirit with activism. She perhaps can achieve things others merely discuss."

—The Bloomsbury Review

"Edwina Gateley is an essential voice to Christian feminism. A modern Dorothy Day, she writes with the authority we associate with women such as Elizabeth Fry and the Booths."

—The Church Times, London

"One of the most moving books I have ever read. I want to compare it with the writings of Julian of Norwich. Edwina and Julian both work with a mixture of spiritual power, fun, gentleness, earthiness, grieving and faith."—Rosemary Haughton

Edwina Gateley, founder of Genesis House in Chicago, is in great demand as a speaker, conference leader, and retreat giver in the United States and overseas. Her bestselling books include her recent spiritual memoir In God's Womb and Christ in the Margins (with icons by Robert Lentz). She lives in Erie, Pennsylvania.
