

My art is inspired by the concept of garden as a metaphor for human mortality. It is that brief juxtaposition of seemingly unlikely pairs of natural elements—a dog's walk, a buck's rack or a dog whose sniffs turn into a scented bouquet.

RMJordan

2015