The annual Yiddish New York (YNY) Arts Exhibition, a special highlight of the annual YNY Festival, will present the works of dozens of artists, curated by Tine Kindermann and Deborah Ugoretz, at the Heller Museum at HUC-JIR/New York. Entitled “HOPE/LESS,” the show explores the thin line between hope and hopelessness, and asks how creative artists gain inspiration from both.

Despite the disillusionment and despair caused by the contemporary political, social, and survival woes of the world, there is always hope -- present in the longing for the Messiah; in the legend of the 36 Tzadikim Nistarim, the righteous people who keep the world in balance; and in the concept of Tikkun Olam, the mandate to heal the world. The artists’ works present the power of creativity to respond, reflect, and heal.

Founded in 1875, Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion is North America's leading institution of higher Jewish education and the academic, spiritual, and professional leadership development center of Reform Judaism. HUC-JIR educates leaders to serve North American and world Jewry as rabbis, cantors, educators, and nonprofit management professionals, and offers graduate programs to scholars and clergy of all faiths. With centers of learning in Cincinnati, Jerusalem, Los Angeles, and New York, HUC-JIR's scholarly resources comprise the renowned Klau Library, The Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives, museums, research institutes and centers, and academic publications. In partnership with the Union for Reform Judaism and the Central Conference of American Rabbis, HUC-JIR sustains the Reform Movement's congregations and professional and lay leaders. HUC-JIR's campuses invite the community to cultural and educational programs illuminating Jewish heritage and fostering interfaith and multiethnic understanding. www.huc.edu
