Details:

All framing choices and shipping arrangements are coordinated with me, Theo Coulombe or my representative. Framing style is a simple gallery profile in white, black or black coffee

Sizing:

Some images sizes will vary. Please refer to the specific image for print measurements and please add 2 - 4 inches all around the print area to account for the 'print border'.

Certificate of Authenticity, CoA

Damage to the print in shipping or at the framer is covered by the Certificate of Authenticity. A CoA is provided with each print indicating the name of the original collector/buyer (you) and edition number. Any damaged print must be completely destroyed after its original damage and before a new print with the same edition number will be issued to the original collector/buyer. Photographs proving the destruction of the print must be provided.

There will be no charge for your replacement print. However, depending on the print size and if there is framing (if framing was purchased), there will be an appropriate charge to the collector for framing (if any) and shipping charges.
