

Hurricane Becomes a Cloudy Day

Danielle Klebes

BIO

May 25th - June 30th 2024

STANDARD SPACE

Danielle Klebes lives and works at Wassaic Project in Wassaic, NY.

Danielle has exhibited in notable galleries and museums throughout the United States, Europe, and Canada. These include recent solo shows at NARS Foundation in Brooklyn, NY, Wassaic Project in Wassaic, NY, Jennifer Terzian Gallery in Litchfield, CT, AVA Gallery in Lebanon, NH, Installation Space in North Adams, MA, and L'Atelier Silex Gallery in Trois- Rivières, Quebec, Canada. She has also been included in recent group shows at MoCA Jacksonville in Jacksonville, FL, Galleri Christoffer Egelund in Copenhagen, Denmark, Springfield Museums, Springfield, MA, and Grove Collective in London, UK.

Danielle received her MFA in Visual Arts from Lesley University College of Art and Design in Cambridge, MA, in 2017.

A Summer of Wanting Impossible Things, oil on canvas, 50"x72", Danielle Klebes

Standard Space

147 Main Street, Sharon, CT
917-627-3261